Next stop….

Imagine you have just returned from a summer holiday in the UK, travelling by train using a BritRail Pass. According to BritRail's website, "The United Kingdom has a lot to offer, from lively towns to royal palaces, iconic sports stadiums and outdoor challenges. Being an island, there's plenty of coastline to explore, too!"
Travelling on a budget, you chose to stay in youth hostels, where you met other young travellers. When you returned home, you decided to share your experiences by writing an entry on The-train-travel-tale blog, where young travellers share their stories to entertain and advise.

Write an entry* (500-600 words) on The-train-travel-tale blog
Include:

- a short introduction to yourself and your reasons for travelling by train
- a description of one or two people you met on your journey
- the most unforgettable moment of your trip
- advice for a trip to the UK

*An entry is a separate piece of information that is written in, for instance, a diary or on a website. The main aim of an entry is to get it published and thereby share your views with as many readers as possible.
